

FREE

METRO

27.01.2011
metro.co.uk

40 Style Extra Thursday, January 27, 2011

READER OFFER 20 per cent off lingerie

Niche British lingerie brand What Katie Did has taken the world by storm. Its fabulously pointed, circle-stitched bullet bras have been featured in the pages of every fashion magazine, enhancing the assets of Claudia Schiffer, Rihanna and Victoria Beckham. What Katie Did takes pride in celebrating curvy women, recently dressing the queen of the hourglass figure, Mad Men's Christina Hendricks, in GQ. What Katie Did is offering Metro readers a 20 per cent discount. Simply quote Metro in the boutique or when checking out online (expires February 14, cannot be used with other offers). What Katie Did will be hosting a Valentine's shopping day on Sunday, February 6 in its London boutique. Co-founder Richard Thomas will be offering expert advice on buying lingerie as a gift.

What Katie Did, 26 Portobello Green, 281 Portobello Road, London W10 5TZ. Tel: 0845 430 8943. www.whatkatedid.com

Style Extra Winter skincare

Natural, pure plant oils emulsify to leave skin glowing and soft. Natural Glow Cleansing Oil, £43.40, Antonia Burrell. www.beautique.com

A non-oily gel moisturiser for men which leaves dry skin supple and comfortable. Intensive Hydrating Gel, £24.25, ThalgoMen. www.thalgo.com

Traditional cold cream recipe to lock in moisture. Mrs White's Classic Cold Cream, £20, www.roullierwhite.com

